

Randy Mbambo

Age: 31 Languages: English, Xhosa, Zulu, Sesotho, Setswana Height: 1,5 Shoes: 5
Waist and Shirt: 36 and Large

In 2013 Randy played in an award winning show (best production), as a supporting character on a show called IT'S A WRAP. In 2014 she then joined a community radio station Mogale FM which is based in the westrand. Randy went on to work with PSY entertainment being featured in their short films DEATH, GULUVA and SECOND CHANCE as a supporting actress. From there she landed a lead role on a short film UTHANDO playing a deaf girl who faces difficulties in her relationship and being accepted by her community for Mzansi biskops. In the same year she presented a show called the JERRY K on Fridays, a poetry show that took place every Friday in Johannesburg at Carlton Center produced by Kacey Moore from Ghana. She can also be seen being featured on short roles in dramas series SOUL CITY, RHYTHM CITY, SCANDAL and SABC comedies SKWIZAS, ABOMZALA and REBABULELETSE. You can now be seen presenting a show on SOWETO TV which features choirs from across the country.