

Ndiyathemba Modibedi

Age: 32 Languages: English, IsiXhosa, Sesotho, Setswana, Sepedi Height: 1,7 Shoes: 7/8 Waist and Shirt: 32/34 and Medium

Training

Tshwane University of Technology/ South African State Theatre

Profile

NDIYA is an ingenious actor and filmmaker of note, as well as a poet and voice over artist. He has developed his acting skills as a teenager in high school drama plays, love life drama campaigns to community theatre, he went to Nymphy Drama House and got professional training at South African State Theatre. He then attained an honours degree in Film and television production at Tshwane University of Technology under the Drama and Film department. He has stage and screen acting experience having performed in stage productions like "Twisted" by Joseph Komani and "Children of Asazi" adopted by Sandile Mdluli.

NDIYA has featured in numerous short and feature films like "Memeza" by acclaimed director Vusi'Africa Sindane as well as bioscope film "Puppy Love" by Tumi Moswa. He's recently featured in two feature films "Modisa" by Joseph Muthaphuli and the anticipated "Letters of Hope" by Vusi'Africa Sindane, coming soon to SA Box office and Showmax. As filmmaker he has produced the award winning “Letters of Hope” and directed a short film “SOL” a 2 time international festival official selected film including a selection for nomination at Africa Movie Academy Award (AMMAs) in Nigeria and SAFTAS12 in 2018.